Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicants' submission filed on 8/9/2010 has been entered.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicants, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Michael A. Makuch, on 12/14/2010.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 1, replace the word "operation" in line 16 with "process".

Claim 34, replace the word "operation" in line 2 with "process".

Claim 35, replace the word "operation" in line 2 with "process".

Claim 36, replace the word "operation" in line 2 with "process".

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The closest prior art references are US 2002/0130106 to Mertens et al., which teaches a method for cleaning target substrates, and US 6,058,945 to Fujiyama et al., which teaches a substrate cleaning method. The prior art references of record, taken alone or in combination, do not anticipate or suggest fairly the limitations of: performing a rinse process on a substrate surface having both hydrophobic and hydrophilic areas by supplying only pure water at a first feed amount onto both hydrophobic and hydrophilic areas of the surface, and continuous with the rinse process, continuing to supply the pure water but at a reduced amount while rotating the substrate and moving a pure-water feed point outward from a center of the surface, in combination with the other process steps as instantly recited. Upon further search no other prior art has been located at the date of this Office action.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicants must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Eric Golightly whose telephone number is (571) 270-

3715. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday to Thursday, 7:30 AM to 5:00 PM.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Michael Kornakov can be reached on (571) 272-1303. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
